

MARCH 30. MARCH 30.

GREAT STAKE RACE

Under Auspices of

Dillon Driving Association

DILLON, S. C.

This promises to be the greatest event in the history of the Association. The track has been brought up to the highest state of perfection, the seating capacity of the Grand Stand has been doubled, reduced rates have been secured on all railroads and the people of the Pee Dee will have an opportunity to see a test race unequalled in this country between three well-known racers--

Alfonso, Dan P., and Belle of Darlington

The record of these favorites of the track is too well-known to need any introduction here. They are all fast horses, and public opinion as to their relative speed differs widely, but this "Great Stake Race" on the 30th. will prove which is the fastest of the three.
